Big Triple Feature Bill Today-The Bluebird, Six-Part Arteraft Production, The Gun Woman, Five-Part Triangle Western Drama, Benjamin Chapin in the Sixth Chapter of The Son of Democracy, and Current

The Bluebird, a six-part Arteraft cture, will be shown at the Davis theatre Thursday Friday and Satur-day. It is an adaptation by Charles Maigne from Maeterlinck's mastedce, which has attracted wide atten tion in the dramatic and literary world. While it dealt with subjects of great profundity in an allegorical man-ner, it was aesily understood. The great author took for his central figures a little boy and girl, and for them he drew aside the curtain of life, delved into the past and touched elo-

BREED THEATRE.

The Brilliant Dramatic Star, Bert Lytell, in The Trail to Yesterday, a Rugged Romance of the Plains and Ranches, Picturized from Charles A. Seltzer's Novel, Feature for Today,

The feature screen production at the Breed theatre today is The Trail to seen in the role of a wealthy youth who far dramatic reasons goes west and becomes a cow puncher. Romance, peril, treachery and loyalty all lie in wait for him, and there is a series of absorbing adventures in The Trail to Yesterday. This gripping photoplay has wonderful scenes showing the Grand Canyon of Colorado and Arizona cattle ranches. As Ned Keegles, who later becomes known simply as Dakota, the cowboy, Mr. Lytell has ample scope for his athletic abilities. Beautiful Anna Q. Nilsson plays Sheilla, the girl of his heart. Pearl White and the girl of his heart. Pearl White and Antonio Moreno are also seen in The House of Hats, a continued photoplay that is brimful of thrills and suspense. two-part Mack Sennett comedy en-ed His Bitter Half and the Burton Holmes travel series make up the re mainder of this bill.

Clean, wholesome shows, combined with fun, froite and frivolity, is the aim of the Auditorium management, and is strictly adhered to.

The screen feature will be The Business of Life, presenting Alice Joyce, by Robert W. Chambers, taken from novel of the same name, showing a girl's unswerving faith in mankind by being rewarded by the happiness it deserves. This is the first showing of this remarkable picture in Norwich. The other picture offerings will in-clude Current Events and a good com-edy entitled Here Comes the Girls.

CONCERT.

In addition to the Girls' Glee club, the Academy orchestra will be further assisted in their concert at Slater Me-morial hall on Friday evening by Ber-ton Frank Noyes.

This young violinist is more than a welcome addition to a concert pro-gram, and the management in offering this number is conscious of materials, strengthening the evening's program, and feels assured that Mr. Noyes' appearance will prove a pleasure and this number is conscious of materiall pearance will prove a pleasure and delight to all present. He draws a big, full tone, in excellent tune, and has been playing recently in a style quite superior to anything he has yet shown to the Norwich public.

The Academy orchestra is the only one of its kind in eastern Connecticut, and perhaps the only one in the state presenting any such program as the one they will give tomorrow evening. They have pleased their audiences in the past and it will be their executive. the past, and it will be their earnest

The admission price is 23c (25c with a war tax of 3c), and tickets may be obtained from members of the orchestra or at Cranston's store.

TELLS DYSPEPTICS

Avoid Indigestion, Sour Acid Stomach Heartburn, Gas On Stomach, Etc.

Indigestion and practically all forms of stomach trouble, say medical authorities, are due nine times out of ten to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach. Chronic "acid stomach" is exceedingly dangerous and sufferers should do either one of two things.

Either they can go on a limited and often disagreeable diet, avoiding foods that disagree with them, that irritate the stomach and lead to excess acid secretion or they can eat as they please in reason and make it a practice to

POETRY

SEALED ORDERS. As stealthfly as the tide recedes, the battle-ficebullps down with turret-masts enveiled in sleep where the sullen "iciliers" frown. And every mother's son, aboard from "shore leave" in the town.

"Good-night! Good-night!" but no man knows what this calm night may bring.

For swift as fate is Death unleashed, when Mars' mad tigers spring.
"Lights' out!" is flashed along the fleet.

War looms a living thing.

O these are the floating monsters that carry a pent-up hell.
Where the powder-song of the maga-zine is wed to the shricking shell—
Yet these great ships of war on watch protect the nation wells.

These prowling lions of the deep strike terror with their roar.
Then lightnings flash and thunders crash and wreckage strews the shore—
But better far the deep-sea fight than blood across our door.

—J. Corson Miller.
